The Missouri Federal Bonding Program is a no-cost, job-incentive program to increase the hiring of job seekers and to promote the retention of employees considered to be "at risk." "At risk" job seekers and employees are defined as people who have declared bankruptcy, have bad credit, have little or no work history, receive public assistance, or are ex-offenders. This program provides no-cost, no-deductible insurance coverage that begins the day the bonded person starts work and ends six months later.

To learn more about how your business can participate in this program, contact the Missouri Division of Workforce Development at (800) 877-8698.

Be sure to visit our new EMPLOYER EVENTS page for the latest information on upcoming sponsorship and participation opportunities for job fairs, as well as other hiring and HR informational meetings.

For the 59th Annual Governor's Conference on Economic Development, Governor Greitens will guide us as we take field notes on his initiatives that will navigate our state towards job creation and prosperity. With a new vision for our state and a new plan for economic development, we challenge all professionals to unleash their expectations - because this year's conference is NOT BUSINESS AS USUAL!
